

For Immediate Release
October 18, 2007
Contact: Laura White, Development Director
760-721-1706

Savor Sweet Chocolate & Support Young Men with Autism

“The Sweetest Day” fundraiser at C.C Chocolates, Etc. in San Marcos supports TERI’s residential program, Carlo House.

San Diego, CA – C.C. Chocolates, Etc. in San Marcos has a soft spot for the six young men at Carlo House, a TERI operated group home for developmentally disabled. The guys are regulars at their store and smitten with C.C’s sugar free fudge so in return, the store is throwing a fundraiser to help them get to Catalina on their annual vacation.

Saturday, October 20th from 12 to 3pm proceeds from “The Sweetest Day” will benefit the men at Carlo House and their efforts to get to Catalina! Guests are invited to shop chocolate for the holiday season at 189 South Rancho Santa Fe Road.

The Training, Education & Research Institute (TERI), located in Oceanside, has been a lifeline for individuals with autism and other developmental and learning disabilities since 1980. TERI has created an environment where individuals with autism and other disabilities can thrive, surrounded by expert care providers dedicated to improving the quality of their over-all life experiences. Serving nearly 600 children, youth, adults and their families through educational, vocational, life planning and residential services, TERI is providing care today and working on securing the future for every one of our clients.

The array of cradle-to-rocking chair programs include two specialized schools for children, K-12, a Center for the Arts & Adult Education; a Fitness, Therapy & Recreation Center; a Life Planning Center, a Therapeutic Equestrian Center; a Therapeutic Aquatic program; Family Support Respite Services; Transportation Services and 10 owned and operated residential homes located through San Diego North County where many of the youth and adults participating in TERI programs live and thrive.

WHEN: Saturday October 20th, 12-3pm
WHERE: 189 South Rancho Santa Fe Road.
WHAT: The Sweetest Day Fundraiser support TERI’s Carlo House